WORDS OF WELCOME

As we move deeper into this season of autumn and God's creation increasingly bursts into color, these visible reminders of God's faithfulness proved fresh encouragement to gather in His presence to bring Him our praise. Come, let us worship the Lord, our Creator and Redeemer, with all our hearts.

We are grateful to share this time of worship with all of you who are visiting with us today. We warmly welcome you. Please stay to enjoy refreshments in Friendship Hall following morning worship.
